Medical Paging System

Better Communication Promotes Better Healthcare

Give patients the best healthcare possible with QuietCall medical paging system. With a flash, beep or vibrate, QuietCall is used to communicate confidentially with patients, their family or staff members. No need to worry about long lines, congestion or noisy overhead systems at the admissions area or other parts of your facility. Your staff can also quietly communicate with each other while caring for patients and protecting their privacy.

QuietCall provides people more freedom of movement and helps you increase revenue. Lightweight, convenient pagers free them to have a meal in the cafeteria, visit the gift shop, get fresh air or relax in the waiting area. Count on QuietCall to deliver quality healthcare that's great for everyone and great for the bottom line.

QuietCall helps you silently and confidentially communicate with patients, family members or staff, resulting in better, higher quality healthcare.
